RE: _____

Dear Kerry——

Al even bought you a beer...hmmm...idea is so foreign I'm not sure I can fully grasp it. Well, my friend, one thing is for certain. You have entered into competition with the Quarter's special kind of heroics, and won. Congratulations...I guess.

I was a bit overwhelmed, but pleasantly so, by your remarks about Poll and the short poems. But, my dear fellow, in order to secure my future we need a few thousand more like you. (That is, supporters of Beatright, not French Quarter toughs...) What better cause, Mr. Citizen Paine? Think on it.

The Poll Journal continues to enlarge...some 20 pages beyond where you saw it last...but no plan to seek pub. on the new parts as yet. The section that proceeds the N.O. part is up for grabs tho, and may appear before too long. I'll drop you a note when. The poems will appear here and there in the little magazines, this year and early next if everyone meets their planned pub. date. GALLERY (Lincoln); SEED (Mexico City); JACARANDA (Mexico City); VISVA BHARATI (West Bengal, India); GREEN WORLD (Baton Rouge); BLACK CAT REVIEW (San Bernardino); SUN (Tokyo); SOUTH & WEST (Fort Smith)...but I'm not sure of all the dates myself. (Of course, if you're independently wealthy you can subscribe to all these mags, and wait them out.)

Let me hear from you.

yrs,

Phil
